DEPUTIES' MEETING

Wednesday, 17 June 1953

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Messrs. Wisner, Wolf, Amory, Kirkpatrick, Colonel White, Messrs. Helms, Sheldon and

Mr. Dulles:

b. Stated that after General Erskine had been confirmed he be invited here for an over-all briefing.

Mr. Wisner:

Noted that he had not seen the final draft of the Jackson Committee Report, however, he had been advised that it was ready to go to press momentarily. After some discussion the Director stated he did not believe that this report contained anything fundamentally which might affect CIA and therefore did not believe it necessary to request a copy for examination and/or last minute changes prior to publication.

Colonel White:

Reported that Mr. Broadbent of the Bureau of the Budget had not to date returned his call in connection with our new building and recommended that the Director get in touch with Mr. Dodge. DCI indicated he would do so.

Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Noted that Senators Magnuson and Dirksen had returned from their trip to the Far East and suggested that the DCI might wish to call one of them. The Director indicated he would get in touch with Senator Dirksen.

Mr. Helms:

Reported that Ambassador Stewart had requested a briefing and asked if the Director wished to see him. Mr. Dulles stated that he did.
